

I have an elderly father living with me. We have separate phone numbers, so we would get double the telemarketing calls. He is unable to get to the phone quickly and is hard of hearing. The telemarketing calls were not only annoying, they are a source of frustration & unnecessary pain for him. Leave our State law alone!